

A Proclamation touching Coynges.

The Quenes hyghnes by thadvice and consente of her graces priue counsaile is pleased and doth ordeyne, that from the date & publication hereof forwarde, every single Crusado of Portingalle, with the longe crosse, being of the iuste standerde, finesse, and weyght, shalbe demed and accepted to be of the value of. vij. s. iij. d. of curraunte moneye of thys realme. Every Pytlette being of the iuste standerd, finesse and weyght, shalbe demed and accepted to be of the value of vij. s. ij. d. of the curraunt moneye of this realme. Every single Crusado of Portingale with the shorte crosse, beinge of the iuste standerde, finesse, and weyght, shalbe demed and accepted to be of the value of. vij. s. viij. d. of the curraunt moneye of this realme. And that every of the sayde severall coynges aboue mentioned, beinge of the iuste weyght and finesse, accordinge to the standerde of the same, shal commonly be payde and receaved throughout thys her highnes realme, and other her graces dominions in all paymentes and receptes, for, and after the rates and values befoze in thys present Proclamation expessed and declared.

Strayghtly charging and commaundyng all and singuler her highnes subiectes and others, dwellynge, conuersinge, or trafekyng within her sayde graces realme and dominions, that they and every of them obserue, fufyll, and execute the effecte and tenour of this presente Proclamation, vpon payne, that who so disobeyeth or refuseth so to do, beinge by due profe therof detected, shal suffer imprisonment, and further punishment at her hyghnes pleasure.

God saue the Quene.

Londini in ædibus Iohannis Cawodi

Typographi Reginae Mariae excusum.

Anno. M. D. L. llll.

4. die mensis Maij.

Cum privilegio ad imprimendum solum.